

The Future of Europe & Turkey Through Education

Online Learning Initiatives for Youth in Turkey

Call for participants

The European Neighbourhood Council (ENC), together with the EU Delegation in Turkey and the Friedrich Naumann Foundation in Turkey (FNFT) will implement “The Future of Europe & Turkey Education” Online Training Programme in 2020-2021 , building on identified best practises of the Turkey Training and Lecture Programme 2018-2020 \(TTP\). The four online sessions, which will take place throughout November and December 2020, will cover the following topics: privacy, disinformation, media freedom and fundraising.

Target group

A group of 60 opinion shapers composed of members of Civil Society organisations (CSO), journalists/bloggers, students and academics across Turkey, including urban centers such as Adana, Diyarbakir, Samsun are invited to participate in four online training sessions.

Activities

26 November 2020: Deciphering disinformation and fact-checking methods

2 December 2020: Understanding how GDPR works

4 December 2020: Transparency and investigative journalism

3 December 2020: Mapping access to funding in Turkey

Admission criteria

Interested candidates must demonstrate a good level of English and relevant background with regards to the topics in question. You may apply to more than one training session by prioritising according to your own interests (e.g. 1. Disinformation, 2. Transparency & Investigative Journalism etc.)

Please send your CV to media@encouncil.org using the subject line “Online Turkey Training Programme” and adding the sessions you want to attend in the main body of the email by 10 November 2020 12:00 CET.

Selected candidates will be notified via email by 20 November 2020.